

PACIFIC COAST PRODUCERS

WOODLAND, CALIFORNIA

COMPANY

AN AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE

- Collectively owned by over 160 family farms in Central and Northern California
- 14 local tomato growers
- Woodland facility processes over 8,000 tons of tomatoes per day from July through September
- World's largest tomato canning plant

Moved tomato canning facility from Lodi to Woodland in 2002

PRODUCTS

SERVICE, QUALITY, AND SUPPORT FOR YOUR GOOD NAME

Pacific Coast Producers' Woodland facility produces over 250 varieties of healthy and sustainable canned tomato varieties including whole, diced, sliced, crushed, sauces, paste and more.

Products used in nearly 1 million food service outlets like schools, restaurants, and healthcare facilities

Available at over 50,000 grocers internationally like Raley's and Walmart

FUTURE

OUR HOME IN WOODLAND, CA

"Conventional tomatoes are grown and picked within a 16 mile radius of our Woodland facility, making the trip from the field to can in less than 4 hours. We moved to Woodland [in 2002] because it's really convenient and all the farms are right by us."

Chris Ward

Woodland Plant Manager

PCP's Woodland facility employs over 1,250 individuals from July-September

PACIFICCOASTPRODUCERS.COM