

TAUZER APIARIES

WOODLAND, CALIFORNIA

COMPANY

SEVEN GENERATIONS

Primarily a pollination service, Tauzer Apiaries also produces Sola Bee Farms varietal honey

- In Woodland since 1861
- A seventh generation now calls the Tauzer family property home
- Solar power runs much of the farm today, inspiring the name “Sola Bee”

PRODUCTS

HEALTHY HONEYBEES

Whether providing pollination services throughout Northern California or producing sustainably harvested, 100% pure, raw honey, the Tauzer Family prioritizes healthy bees to fuel our thriving food and ag economy

Sola Bee can be found at grocers including Woodland’s own Nugget Market

Tauzer Apiaries collaborates with local wineries, ranchers, growers, and landowners to maintain healthy honeybee hives

FUTURE

OUR HOME IN WOODLAND, CA

“We are producers of food here... I appreciate that ag business is becoming a face for Woodland. We’re here to support the whole industry”

Claire Tauzer
Sola Bee Farms
Brand Manager

Tauzer Apiaries is thriving in Woodland because of collaboration with neighboring agricultural businesses. A supportive, honeybee-friendly community is vital to the success of beekeepers and food producers in the region.
